

 Sleep Medicine  Version 1.0  Physicians requesting privileges in this subspecialty must also request privileges in their primary discipline.  Scope

 P389146: The scope of privileges in sleep medicine includes the evaluation, diagnosis, treatment, and consultation for patients of all ages, presenting with conditions or disorders of sleep, hypersomnia, parasomnia, circadian rhythm, and sleep related movement disorders. They perform and interpret a variety of diagnostic tests in evaluation of sleep disorders. Physicians may admit and may provide care to patients in the intensive care setting in conformance with MTF policies.

  Diagnosis and Management (D&M): P389148: Diagnostic Polysomnography P389150: Therapeutic Polysomnography P389152: Multiple Sleep Latency Testing P389154: Maintenance of Wakefulness Studies P389156: Actigraphy P389158: Unattended Portable Monitoring  Procedures:  Other (Facility- or provider-specific privileges only):